Kinds of Friends

Ecclesiasticus 37:1-4

[1] Every friend sayeth, I am his friend also: but there is a friend which is only a friend in name.
[2] Is it not a grief unto death, when a companion

and friend
is turned to an enemy?
[3] O wicked
imagination,
whence camest
thou in to cover the earth with deceit?

[4] There is a companion, which rejoiceth in the prosperity of a friend: but in the time of trouble will be against him.

Kinds of Friends

Anyone can claim to be a friend, but not everyone is a real friend.

There are some friends who are so—
in name only.

They call themselves your friend, but their actions prove otherwise.

Isn't it really horrible when a "friend" or companion, or at least someone you thought was

your friend,
shows themselves
to actually be your enemy?

There are
fair-weather,
deceitful, friends
who will be with you only when things are going well and money is flowing. However, when there's trouble, they won't support you. In fact, they'll go against you. No one benefits from these kinds of friends.
